Matthew 28:1-20 KJV “In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and become as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word. And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him. Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there they shall see me. Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if this come to the governor’s ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day. Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.”

Hello brothers in Christ, PRAY and grab your Bible.

The Resurrection, Easter Sunday, the day Christ Jesus put to shame death, Hell, and the grave. GLORY TO GOD. Normally brothers we go through the selected Scripture and dig deep into the truths God reveals to us through the Holy Spirit teaching and many elders before us. This week rather than do so, and this portion of text alone, as all others are FULL of inexhaustible gems of prophecy and blessings and undeniable facts. We will cover this some time God willing. Yet this week I would like you to just pray and try and forget all your problems and fears this week. Read and reread this passage of Scripture for half the week and reflect on it. Then for the second half of the week I want you to pray and read and re-read 1 Corinthians 15:12-34 and reflect on this Scripture.

Please pay special attention to Jesus' words in Matthew 28:19-20 and then try and realize the magnitude of this. If we love others as God loved us (John 3:16) then what possibly could be of more importance in our short time here than to try and reach as many as we possibly can and tell them about Jesus? There truly could be no greater task we seek to achieve and all for His Glory and by His power. I pray you truly study these passages all week and decide your going to KEEP MARCHING for God NO MATTER WHAT kind of trials and storms we face. God Bless You all and #KGCOG Keep Going Children Of God

Much love my brothers in Christ, you all STAY in my prayers,

Brian B.
